Summer Tennis Camp 2024

We offer tennis programs for boys and girls from ages 4-16, beginners & intermediates. Advanced players will be directed to other camps from the professional staff.

Young players will have the opportunity to improve their tennis game and make new friends. Students will be grouped based on ability, along with friendships-if coming with a friend. Classes will focus each week on a specific theme for the day: Forehand and backhand groundstrokes, net play, volleys, serving, and more! All play will be outside at Tri-City Park in Rocky River.

QuickStart Beginner Tennis: developed by the United States Tennis Association (USTA). QuickStart is a format to help kids learn and play the game on a smaller scale and will be used when needed for students 10 & under.

What to bring: tennis racquet, water bottle, hat, sunscreen, and a daily snack. A light jacket or sweater recommended, especially for early morning campers.

GROUP 1 AGES 6-10                      9:00-10:30 AM

This program will introduce players to the fundamentals of the forehand, backhand, volleys, and serve. Players will practice various skills in small groups through station courts. QuickStart techniques and equipment will be used to teach scoring and rallying.

GROUP 2 AGES 10-16                      9:00-10:30 AM

Players are beginning to play on their own. Service & consistency skills will be emphasized. The goal is to develop good consistency on all strokes through instruction and games.

Fee per session (4 days, Monday-Thursday)

Fees: Members: $70    Residents: $80    Non-Residents: $85

Registration begins April 15. Max 30 per class
